

I'm not a robot

One of our biggest steps on our journey to zero carbon and zero waste is in choosing our materials because they account for more than 70% of any product's footprint. By reusing existing plastics, yarns, and textiles, we significantly reduce our emissions. Did you know? The "Sunburst" symbol was created in the 1970s as a circular option where the asymmetry of the Swoosh logo didn't work. Since then, in the same nature of our circular-design philosophy, we've repurposed the logo. Today, when you see this logo, you see one small step in our journey to Move to Zero. Get the latest Nike Sustainability news and discover new ways we can help protect the future of sport together. Did you know? The "Sunburst" symbol was created in the 1970s as a circular option where asymmetry of the Swoosh logo didn't work. Since then, in the same nature of our circular design philosophy, we've repurposed the logo. Today, when you see this logo, you see one small step in our journey to Move to Zero. As the saying goes, everything old is new again. Get the latest Nike Sustainability news and discover new ways we can help protect the future of sport together. Did you know? The "Sunburst" symbol was created in the 1970s as a circular option where the asymmetry of the Swoosh logo didn't work. Since then, in the same nature of our circular-design philosophy, we've repurposed the logo. Today, when you see this logo, you see one small step in our journey to Move to Zero. Get the latest Nike Sustainability news and discover new ways we can help protect the future of sport together. Nike Revolution 7Nike Star Runner 4Nike Air Max DnNike TanjunNike Star Runner 4Nike Star Runner 4Nike Revolution 7Nike Revolution 7Nike Revolution 7 Nike Downshifter 13Nike Air Max DnNike Air Max DnNike Pegasus 41Nike Pegasus 41Nike Air Max Nuaxis