The majority of SAVE cases are verified for user agencies within seconds. However, some verification cases may require additional processing times, which vary. Visit our SAVE Verification Response Time page for more information on our current processing times. CaseCheck lets benefit applicants check the status of their SAVE verification case as part of an application for a public benefit or license.Click the Check your Case button below;CHECK YOUR CASEStep 2Select the identification type you presented to the benefit granting agency; andStep 3Enter the requested information: Your date of birth; AND One of the following, depending upon what the agency used to create your case in SAVE:SAVE verification case number assigned to your SAVE case if provided to you by the agency you requested the benefit from;An immigration enumerator:Alien Number (A-Number) or USCIS Number;Card Number / Form I-797 Receipt Number;Certificate of Citizenship Number;Certificate of Naturalization Number;Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record Number;ForeignPassport Number;SEVIS ID Number;ORSocial Security number (SSN).For more information on where to locate the enumerator on an immigration document, visit ourCommonly Used Immigration Documentspage.If CaseCheck locates your verification case based on the information you provided, it will return one of the following responses: The verification request is pending with SAVE;OR A SAVE response was returned to the agency. Contact the agency about the status of your benefit application.SAVE CaseCheck Fact SheetSAVE CaseCheck BrochureIf you need more help, please email SAVE at SAVE.help@uscis.dhs.gov. SAVEis now usingLogin.govas its secure sign-in provider to enhance account protection. Browser users must sign in through Login.gov using an email, password, and Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA), also known as two-factor authentication, to access all verification applications and systems, includingE-Verify,E-Verify+,myE-Verify, andSAVE.MFA adds an extra layer of security, helping safeguard your private and sensitive information from hackers and password compromises. When setting up your Login.gov account, youll choose anauthentication methodsuch as an authenticator appon a device only you control. Each time you sign in, you'll use this method to enter a verification code, ensuring secure access.With a single Login.gov account, you can securely access multiple government websites and manage your verification needs online. Video - LOGIN.gov Use anemail address that you control. Youcannot use an email shared with someone else.When using a work email, if you lose access to that email (for example, because you change jobs), this will make it difficult to recover the Login.gov account associated with that email.Deleting your Login.gov account will block your access to SAVE. You can add multiple email addresses to your Login.gov account and then choose which email address to use for your SAVE profile.Can I share a Login.gov account with another person?No. Each user must havetheir own Login.gov accountwith a unique email address. Shared accounts are not allowed.Go to theSAVEwebsiteand click Login, then select Sign in with Login.gov.Enter your Login.gov email and password.Complete multifactor authentication (MFA).Once verified, you will beautomatically redirected to yourSAVEusername and password will no longer work. You mustsign in with a Login.gov account, which will be linked to your existingSAVEprofile during the setup process.What if I already have a Login.gov account?If you already have a Login.gov account, you dont need to create a new one. Follow instructions above to migrate your existing SAVE user account. When taken to Login.govs website, sign in with your existingLogin.gov email, password, and authentication methodto accessSAVE.Login.gov offers multiple Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) methods. To protect your account, we strongly recommend addingat least two authentication methods. This ensures you have a backup if you lose access to your primary method (e.g., losing your phone).Choose the most secure methods that you can reliably use.If you lose access to all MFA methods, youll need to create a new account.More secure methods:Authentication applicationSecurity keyPIV or CAC card for federal government employees or military service membersFace or touch unlockLess secure methods:Text messagePhone call to a landline phoneBackup codesWhy should I add more than one authentication method?Adding multiple authentication methods helps:Prevent lockoutsif you lose access to your primary method (e.g., lost phone).Enhance securityby providing backup options like a security key or authentication app.Manage or add methods in your Login.gov account under "Your authentication methods." More info:Add or Change Your Authentication Method.For help with signing in, passwords, or authentication methods, visit theLogin.gov Help Center.If you're locked out, Login.govcannot reset, delete, or access your accounton your behalf. You may need to delete your account and start over.Can Login.gov help me with my SAVE benefits, services, application or profile?No, Login.govonly handles sign-in and authentication. It cannot assist withSAVEbenefits, services, applications, or profiles.ForSAVEsupport, contactSAVEcustomer serviceat 877-469-2563 orSave.help@uscis.dhs.gov. Visit us for fast and easy mattress buying experience. You can try the mattresses in our showroom, select the size and model that best suits you and have it deliver immediately.Open Monday - Saturday 10am - 7pmSunday: Closed 6418 Highway 6 N Houston TX 77084281-858-8908Get directions Open: Monday - Saturday 10am - 7pmSunday Closed 23021 Morton Ranch Rd, BKaty TX 77449Get directions Open Monday - Saturday 10am - 7pmSunday Closed 11300 Katy Freeway Houston TX 77043Get directions Open Monday - Saturday 10am - 7pmSunday Closed 5130 Highway 6 NorthHouston TX 77084Get directions Big Sale Going on Now! Use the drop-down menu and search bar to filter for specific content or scroll through our fact sheets and guidance for benefit applicants.If you cannot find what you are looking for, please email us at: SAVE.help@uscis.dhs.gov. This guide provides information on using the SAVE system, including user roles, creating verification requests, submitting cases for additional verification, and receiving responses. It focuses on using SAVE via a secure web browser, though some agencies may use a web services application. Users must follow the requirements in this guide and their agencys Memorandum of Agreement (MOA). SAVE registered agencies have a new resource to get answers to questions on how changes in parole and Temporary Protected Status (TPS) affect verification. The new page, FAQs on the Effect of Changes to Parole and Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for SAVE Agencies, includes information about the Parole Programs for Cubans, Haitians, Nicaraguans, and Venezuelans (CHNV parole programs), non-categorical parole, TPS for Venezuelans, and TPS for Haitians. A poster informingalien or a naturalized or derived citizen, an agency may check their immigration status using SAVE before grantinga public benefit, such as a Social Security card, health benefits or a state-issued drivers license. Status of Citizens of the Republic of Palau Fact SheetThis fact sheet provides information related to citizens of the Republic of Palau. Some of the topics include citizenship status, travel and admission to the United States, travel, admission and employment authorization documentation and eligibility for Federal benefits. Information about how benefit applicants can use SAVE CaseCheck to track the status of a verification request submitted on their behalf by a benefit granting or licensing agency. The Publication Library contains guidance and policy papers, reports, strategies, program regulations, guidelines, brochures and more. To search the DHS Publications Library, please enter search terms below. SAVE is an online service for registered federal, state, territorial, tribal, and local government agencies to verify immigration status and naturalized/acquired U.S. citizenship of applicants seeking benefits or licenses.SAVE does not determine an applicant's eligibility for a specific benefit or license. The benefit-granting or licensing agency determines eligibility for each benefit they administer.SAVE is administered by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), a component of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). REMINDER: SAVE Enhances Account Security with Login.gov To strengthen account security, SAVE implemented multifactor authentication (MFA) through Login.gov. MFA adds an extra layer of security to the login process by requiring users to provide more than just a password. For example, users may be asked to enter a code sent to their email or mobile device in addition to their password. Find out more information including the history of SAVE, the verification process, the cost to use SAVE, verification response times, and a list of current User Agencies. Resources for agencies already registered to use SAVE. Review news & alerts, access guidance, and sign up for webinars. Resources for individuals who have applied for benefits or licenses, such as healthcare, a drivers license, or a social security card, with a government agency that uses SAVE. Track the status of a pending case with SAVE CaseCheck, watch the SAVE Overview webinar, and learn how to correct your records. Information about eligibility requirements for an agency to register for SAVE, the registration process, and resources for prospective agencies. SAVE is an online service administered by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) that provides point in time immigration status and naturalized/acquired U.S. citizenship information to federal, state, local, territorial, and tribal agencies. SAVE is fast, secure, and reliable, and enables registered user agencies to make accurate decisions for applicants seeking benefits and licenses.Approximately 1,200 agencies nationwide use SAVE to support their benefit eligibility and licensing determinations. This includes agencies such as those that provide health care benefits, social security benefits, education grants and assistance, state drivers licenses and ID cards, and occupational and professional licenses.In fiscal year 2023, SAVE performed over 21.5 million verifications.What SAVE Does Verifies a benefit or license applicants immigration status or U.S. citizenship, including naturalized or acquired U.S. citizenship, for user agencies within seconds. Helps ensure that only applicants who are eligible for benefits and licenses receive them. Incorporates privacy principles and security measures into user agencies processes and procedures. Is easy to use and offers online training tools and resources to assist user agencies.What SAVE Does Not DoX Determine applicant eligibility for a specific benefit or license. That determination is made by the benefit issuing or licensing agency.X Provide employment eligibility verification to employers. For more information on employment eligibility verification visite-verify.gov.X Share information provided by user agencies for administrative (non-criminal) immigration enforcement purposes. To create a SAVE case the user agency must submit:The applicantsbiographic informationFirst name and last name; andDate of birthThepublic benefit(s)requested by the applicantANDAt least oneunique identifiersuch as:USCIS/Alien Registration number (A-Number)Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record numberStudent and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) ID numberNaturalization/Citizenship Certificate numberCard Number/I-797 Receipt NumberSocial Security number (for initial verification only [1]SAVE cannot verify a benefit applicants immigration status or U.S. citizenship using a drivers license number, U.S. passport number, foreign passport number without another immigration enumerator, Consular Report of Birth Abroad or other non-DHS documentation. SAVE also cannot verify an applicants status using only first and last name.To increase the likelihood of an immediate response without additional verification, user agencies should enter all available identifiers SAVE allows, exactly as they appear on the applicants document(s).For additional information about immigration documents and immigration identifiers user agencies may encounter, see SAVEsCommonly Used Immigration Documentspage.Web Browser: All registered agencies may access SAVE using a secure Web browser.Web Services: Registered agencies may also establish a web services application, a machine-to-machine interface over a network, to access SAVE.The agency user submits the applicants:First and last name;Date of birth;Public benefit(s) requested; andAt least one immigration identifier or a Social Security number.Within seconds SAVE returns a response, or prompts the user agency for additional action, including requesting additional verification.If the user agency receives a prompt to request additional verification, they must submit the case for additional verification to receive a SAVE response.When submitting the additional verification request, the user agency may include more information and/or a copy of the applicants immigration document, if needed or as required.Additional verification can only be conducted with an immigration enumerator. If SAVE cannot provide a response after initial verification for a case created using only a Social Security number, SAVE will close the case and instruct the user agency to submit a new case with corrected/updated information or to include an immigration enumerator, if available.After completing additional verification SAVE will:Return a SAVE response, orPrompt the user to Resubmit with Docs, which means the user must upload a copy of the applicants immigration document for verification. SAVE will then return a final response.Need More Information?If you need more help, please email us atSAVE.help@uscis.dhs.gov.For more information about registering for SAVE, please visit our website at 1] User agencies can only create a SAVE case with a Social Security number when logged into SAVE using a web browser and is not currently available for SAVE web services connections. SAVE accepts a Social Security number (SSN) to create a case and complete initial automated verification only. An immigration enumerator is required for additional manual verification. News and important communications from the Department of Homeland Security. Latest news and press releases. Our blog provides an inside-out view of what we do every day at DHS. Information about terrorist threats to the American public. The latest releases and fact sheet archive. Testimony from DHS officials before Congress. Media inquiries and agency press contacts. Comunicado de Prensa: Comunicados en espaol del Departamento de Seguridad Nacional de EE. UU. Featured News: Press releases, blog posts, and other news items featured on the homepage of DHS.gov. All DHS News: All DHS news items in one sortable and filterable list. Find particular photos, videos, or audio entries of interest. Guidance and policy papers, reports, strategies, program regulations, guidelines, brochures and more. Follow DHS and its component agencies on social media. A list of DHS apps, with descriptions of each. Statistical reports and machine-readable data sets. Subscribe to email updates to receive news and information from DHS. The SAVE tutorial helps SAVE users use SAVE correctly and efficiently. The tutorial provides information about:SAVE and the verification process;SAVE CaseCheck;Commonly used immigration documents and where to find immigration enumerators;Common case responses;Best practices for additional verification;Managing cases; andAdministering SAVE accounts.Beginning on May 28, SAVE users will be required to review the tutorial and certify to completing the review in the SAVE system before they will be able to create new SAVE cases. Users will certify completion of the tutorial within SAVE at SAVE> Manage Profile.The tutorial is available by clicking here:SAVE TutorialSAVE Web services users should review and reference the tutorial to obtain the most up-to-date guidance on using SAVE. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Verification Division administers the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) Program. SAVE is a fee-based inter-governmental initiative designed to help federal, state, tribal, and local government agencies confirm citizenship and immigration status prior to granting benefits and licenses, as well as for other lawful purposes. The purpose of this update is to discuss the changes to SAVE, including: (1) a new information collection, (2) the use of the Person Centric Entity Resolution microservice, (3) migration to a cloud-hosted environment, (4) transition from a paper-based process to a paperless process, and (5) to inform the public of USCISs use of information from SAVE in administering bonds posted as security for performance and fulfillment of the financial obligations of a bonded alien (someone who is not a U.S. Citizen) to the U.S. Government. USCIS is publishing an update to this Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA) to describe the collection, use, maintenance, and disclosure of personally identifiable information (PII), as well as the risks associated with these updates. June 2020Associated SORNDHS/USCIS-004 Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements Program Approximately 1,200 agencies nationwide use SAVE to support their benefit eligibility and licensing determinations. This includes agencies such as those that provide health care benefits, social security benefits, education grants and assistance, state drivers licenses and ID cards, and occupational and professional licenses. Government agencies that provide benefits or licenses (including health care, social security, educational assistance, drivers licenses and ID cards, voter registration and list maintenance services, and more) may need to verify the U.S. citizenship or immigration status of their applicants. When you apply for these benefits or licenses, the agency may use SAVE to verify your immigration status or U.S. citizenship, including naturalized or acquired U.S. citizenship.Benefit granting and licensing agencies use SAVE as part of their determination about your eligibility; only the agency issuing the benefit or license makes that determination.If you have more than one immigration document, include the most recently issued document as part of your benefit or license application.Benefit granting and licensing agencies may have specific documentation requirements. Contact the agency for more information about what immigration documentation you should present with your application. to rescue from danger or possible harm, injury, or loss.to save someone from drowning.to keep safe, intact, or unhurt; safeguard; preserve.to keep from being lost to an opponent.A goal in the final minute saved the game.to avoid the spending, consumption, or waste of.to keep, as for reuse.to save leftovers for tomorrow's dinner.to set aside, reserve, or lay by.Synonyms: husband, store upto treat carefully in order to reduce wear, fatigue, etc..to save one's eyes by reading under proper light.to prevent the occurrence, use, or necessity of; obviate.to come early in order to save waiting.Theology.to deliver from the power and consequences of sin.Computers.to copy (a file or other data) to a storage medium, as from RAM to a disk.Sports.to stop (a ball or puck) from entering one's goal.to lay up money as the result of economy or thrift.Synonyms: hoard, economizeto be economical in expenditure.to preserve something from harm, injury, loss, etc.to keep or last without spoiling, as food.an act or instance of saving, especially in sports.The goalie guarded the net well and made a crucial save.Baseball.a statistical credit given a relief pitcher for preserving a team's victory by holding its lead in a game.Computers.an act of copying a file or other data to a storage medium.The server is scheduled to execute a systemwide save at the end of the work day.one version of a saved file.We can recover the lost data if we restore it from a previous save.except; but.All the guests had left save one.except; but (usually followed bythat).He would have gone, save that he had no means.(tr) to rescue, preserve, or guard (a person or thing) from danger or harmto avoid the spending, waste, or loss of (money, possessions, etc)(tr) to deliver from sin; redeem(often foll by up) to set aside or reserve (money, goods, etc) for future use(tr) to treat with care so as to avoid or lessen wear or degenerationuse a good light to save your eyes(tr) to prevent the necessity for; obviate the trouble ofgood work now will save future revision(tr) sport to prevent (a goal) by stopping (a struck ball or puck)(intr) (of food) to admit of preservation; keepCollins English Dictionary Complete & Unabridged 2012 Digital Edition William Collins Sons & Co. Ltd. 1979, 1986 HarperCollins Publishers 1998, 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2012sport the act of saving a goalcomputing an instruction to write information from the memory onto a tape or diskCollins English Dictionary Complete & Unabridged 2012 Digital Edition William Collins Sons & Co. Ltd. 1979, 1986 HarperCollins Publishers 1998, 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2012Also: saving.(often foll by for) with the exception ofCollins English Dictionary Complete & Unabridged 2012 Digital Edition William Collins Sons & Co. Ltd. 1979, 1986 HarperCollins Publishers 1998, 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2012savable adjectivesaveable adjectiveunsavable adjectiveunsaveable adjectivesaved adjectivesavabless nounsaver nounnounsavable adjectiveunsaveable adjectivesaved adjectivesavableness nounsaver nounFrom Late Latin from Latin salve safeOrigin of save2From Late Latin from Latin salv, from salvus safeExamples have not been reviewed. The southpaw was in line for the victory before Jansens blown save sent the game to extra innings.In a new report, the committee said the LISA's dual purpose to help people save for both the short- and long-term "makes it more likely consumers will choose unsuitable investment strategies".They cannot provide treatment, but Jackie's actions have already helped to save lives.Despite conceding eight goals in three games, things could have been much worse for Georgia had it not been for some superb saves from their number one.Do you suppose he even knows that over the past 50 years, the lives of an estimated 154 million children have been saved by vaccines?collectconservekeepmaintainmanagesparestoreWhat is a basic definition of save?Save means to rescue from danger, to lessen the use of something, or to set something aside for later. Save has many other uses, especially as a verb and a noun.If you save someone, you prevent them from being harmed or injured. Nonliving things can also be saved from destruction or damage. A person who saves someone or something else can be called a savior.Real-life examples: Superheroes save the world from supervillains and disasters. Firefighters often save people from burning buildings. A gardener may need to save their plants from hungry animals.Used in a sentence: We managed to gather support and save the park from being bulldozed.When you save gas or save time, you are lowering the amount that you used. Things that lower the amount of stuff needed are called savers with another noun describing what is being saved, as in time saver. The noun saving, meaning a reduction, is based on this sense of save.Real-life examples: Many people want to save money they spend on gas by buying fuel-efficient cars. Using a calculator to solve math problems saves time and stress involved with doing the math yourself. You can save water by turning off the sink while brushing your teeth.Used in a sentence: I think our country will save money on energy if we switch to solar power.Save can also mean to keep something for later. For example, many people save money for a special thing they want to buy or so they have some available in case of an emergency. The word savings is used to refer to money saved for future need.Real-life examples: People often save leftover food to eat later rather than throw it away. Some people save food, water, and other supplies in case of emergencies. Hospitals may save emergency supplies of blood and medicine so they dont run out.Used in a sentence: I am saving my funniest jokes for the talent show.savatesave-allBrowse#aabbccddeeffgghhiijjkkllmmnnooppqqrrssttuuvvwwxxyyzzAboutCareersContact usCookies, terms, & privacyHelpFollow usGet the Word of the Day every day! 2025 Dictionary.com, LLC

Save editable pdf as uneditable. How to save pdf as non editable. How to save pdf as not editable. How to save a pdf as editable. How to save an editable pdf as a non editable pdf. How to save editable pdf as non editable.