

I'm not a robot

Hola! In the previous worksheet, we introduced a list of common irregular verbs in Spanish and asked you to conjugate them. This time, we will focus on the verb SER in Spanish with two specific exercises related to this topic in this nice worksheet. We hope you find it very useful. Lets start Students could work individually or in pairs to solve the exercises on this worksheet. Give students a copy of the worksheet. This worksheet includes three exercises. For the first exercise, students must complete the chart with the proper conjugations of the verb SER in Spanish for each subject pronoun. In the second one, they should take a look at the images above each sentence and simply complete the sentences about those pictures with the forms of the verb. Finally, students should analyze and complete the paragraph about a group of friends using the right forms of SER in the present tense, too. Level: BeginnersSkill: GrammarRelated lessons: The verb SER in Spanish PDF Worksheet (with answers)Download PDF Fill in the blanks with the conjugations of the verb SER in the present indicative. Drag and drop the conjugations of the verb SER to the correct boxes to complete the sentences in the interactive quiz. Students read the sentences in exercise No. 2 again and make new sentences about their friends and classmates following a similar pattern. They should write at least 5 sentences and present them to the rest of the class so that the teacher helps them with pronunciation or any grammar mistake on the use of the verb SER in Spanish. Hola! In the previous worksheet, we introduced a list of common irregular verbs in Spanish and asked you to conjugate them. This time, we will focus on the verb SER in Spanish with two specific exercises related to this topic in this nice worksheet. We hope you find it very useful. Lets start Students could work individually or in pairs to solve the exercises on this worksheet. Give students a copy of the worksheet. This worksheet includes three exercises. For the first exercise, students must complete the chart with the proper conjugations of the verb SER in Spanish for each subject pronoun. In the second one, they should take a look at the images above each sentence and simply complete the sentences about those pictures with the forms of the verb. Finally, students should analyze and complete the paragraph about a group of friends using the right forms of SER in the present tense, too. Level: BeginnersSkill: GrammarRelated lessons: The verb SER in Spanish PDF Worksheet (with answers)Download PDF Fill in the blanks with the conjugations of the verb SER in the present indicative. Drag and drop the conjugations of the verb SER to the correct boxes to complete the sentences in the interactive quiz. Students read the sentences in exercise No. 2 again and make new sentences about their friends and classmates following a similar pattern. They should write at least 5 sentences and present them to the rest of the class so that the teacher helps them with pronunciation or any grammar mistake on the use of the verb SER in Spanish. Hola! In the previous worksheet, we introduced a list of common irregular verbs in Spanish and asked you to conjugate them. This time, we will focus on the verb SER in Spanish with two specific exercises related to this topic in this nice worksheet. We hope you find it very useful. Lets start Students could work individually or in pairs to solve the exercises on this worksheet. Give students a copy of the worksheet. This worksheet includes three exercises. For the first exercise, students must complete the chart with the proper conjugations of the verb SER in Spanish for each subject pronoun. In the second one, they should take a look at the images above each sentence and simply complete the sentences about those pictures with the forms of the verb. Finally, students should analyze and complete the paragraph about a group of friends using the right forms of SER in the present tense, too. Level: BeginnersSkill: GrammarRelated lessons: The verb SER in Spanish PDF Worksheet (with answers)Download PDF Fill in the blanks with the conjugations of the verb SER in the present indicative. Drag and drop the conjugations of the verb SER to the correct boxes to complete the sentences in the interactive quiz. Students read the sentences in exercise No. 2 again and make new sentences about their friends and classmates following a similar pattern. They should write at least 5 sentences and present them to the rest of the class so that the teacher helps them with pronunciation or any grammar mistake on the use of the verb SER in Spanish. Then, students must look at the drawings and write the personal pronouns in Spanish that could best fit these people. Finally, they should fill in the blanks to complete twelve different sentences, making sure to use the corresponding subject pronouns to replace the people in each sentence or find the right one that works perfectly with the main verb. Level: BeginnersSkill: GrammarRelated lessons: Subject Pronouns in Spanish PDF Worksheet (with answers)Download PDF Drag and drop these Spanish subject pronouns under the images they best represent. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate personal pronouns in Spanish for each case based on the subject of the sentence. If you are looking for digital or printable activities to help your students learn all the subject pronouns in Spanish, you will love these resources! Here are 8 of my favorite activities for Spanish subject pronouns and the verb ser! Self-checkingANDself-grading? YES, PLEASE! If you are looking for a fun, interactivedigital activityfor your students to practice Spanish subject pronouns and SER, theseno-prepSpanish Boom Cards are just what you need! Students will be engaged and get a great review of SER and all the subject pronouns in Spanish as they work their way through the50 cardsin the deck. See how fun they are for yourself by clicking the preview below to play a few cards! Task cards are such a fun, versatile tool! This set of task cards for Spanish subject pronouns and SER has48 cardsto get your students up and moving while practicing subject pronouns. More than just fill-in-the-blank cards, this set has a variety of tasks to help your students. Students will beengagedas they complete various tasks likewriting all the subject pronouns, choosing the correct subject pronouns to describe pictures, filling in the blank with the correct subject pronoun, conjugating the verb SER in all its forms, filling in the blank of a sentence with the correct form of SER, writing complete Spanish sentences from prompts given, re-writing grammatically-incorrect sentences correctly, and answering multiple-choice questions. Not sure how to use task cards in class? 15 ideas are included! You can also check out these blog posts I wrote for Secondary Spanish Space: 10 Task Card Ideas for Spanish Class and 5 (More) Ways to Use Task Cards in Spanish Class. Click the image below to learn more about these task cards. These digital task cards for Google Slidesare for anyone looking to reinforce students understanding of subject pronouns and SER with a ton of great practice. Students will be engaged and get a great review as they work their way through the50 interactive Google Slides in the set. Students will be engaged in activities like: choosing the correct conjugation chart for SER choosing the correct subject pronoun for a picture filling in the blank with the correct subject pronoun filling in the blank with the correct form of SER finding the error in a sentence correcting it multiple-choice questions answering the question Cmo eres t? Click the image below learn more about these Google Slides. Save over 40% on all my fun Google resources for Spanish class with the Spanish Google Activities Mega Bundle. Self-grading? Yes, please! This digital Spanish subject pronouns and SER assessment created in Google Forms isself-grading,editable, ANDno prep! In addition to using this for a quiz or test, you can also use a Google Form for an exit ticket, formative assessment, choice board, make-up test for absent students, intervention, or about a million other things! Click the image below to learn more about this Google Form. Save 25% on all my Google Forms with the Spanish Google Forms Mega Bundle. You might also like these discounted mini bundles of Boom Cards/Google Slides and Google Forms assessment. Love super fun,no prepdigital activities? If so, then you will love thisdigital mystery picture! Your Spanish students will get a ton of practice with subject pronouns and SER, and a dose of culture, as they answer a variety of questions in Google Sheets. Best part? Pixel art activities areself-checking! If a students answer is correct, part of the hidden picture of an alebrije will be revealed. If a students answer is incorrect, the picture will not change. That lets the student know he/she needs to try again. The instant feedback really helps students improve their skills! They love mystery pictures and so will you! Click the image below to learn more about this super cute mystery picture. Save over 30% on all my digital mystery pictures with the Digital Mystery Pictures Mega Bundle. Need a fun holiday activity? Heres one for Los Reyes Magos! Are your Spanish students struggling with reading comprehension and subject pronouns in Spanish and SER? You need thisno-prepdigital mystery picture! Your Spanish students willimprove their reading comprehension skillas they read a passage and answer a variety of questions about what they read. Like the above mystery pics, this Spanish activity isself-checking! If a students answer is correct, part of the hidden picture will be revealed. If a students answer is incorrect, the picture will not change. That lets the student know he/she needs to try again. The instant feedback really helps students improve their skills! Students love trying to guess what the picture is as they complete the activity. Hint, the picture has to do with the story! Click here to learn more. Can your students infiltrate the secret society of the Aztecs?? They will have to work together to solve the 6 puzzles in this digital escape room to figure out when the secret meeting is going to be held! This engaging escape room was designed to not only give your students a well-rounded review of Spanish subject pronouns and the verb SER, but also encourage them to think critically as they work their way through the escape room. Its easy for you to assign and students to navigate. All puzzles are embedded right in the Google Slides or Google Sites escape room. No messing around with a bunch of files! Simply share the links to the escape room and Google Form and students are good to go! Thisno-prepactivity isself-checking.Students input their answers to the puzzles in a Google Form. If a groups answer is correct, it will unlock the next question on the Google Form. If a groups answer is incorrect, a message will pop up telling students they need to try again and giving them a hint. That instant feedback makes your job so much easier! These 8.5 x 11 subject pronoun posters are the perfect size to display on a classroom wall. They come in two versions- full-color and black & white.12 subject pronoun posters are included:-yo, t, l, ella, usted, nosotros, nosotras, vosotros, ellos, ellas, and ustedes. There are two ellos posters, one with two boys and one with a boy and a girl. Grab themHERE. I hope these ideas for teaching your Spanish students subject pronouns and SER help! If you enjoyed this post, I would love it if you would pin it so others can enjoy it, too! Thanks and have a great day! Looking for even more ideas? You might also like these posts: SER Activities for Spanish Class and Present Tense Activities for Spanish Class. Lets connect! Follow me onTPT,Facebook, andInstagram. If your students are working on high frequency verbs, one of the most important verbs is the Spanish verb ser! This is something you might work in right away as students are working with subject pronouns, or maybe theyll just see es before any of the other verb forms. Either way, lets look at some ser worksheets for your middle school and high school students! Save this post for later on Pinterest! The present tense of the verb ser is conjugated like this: yo soy t eres vos sois(Latin America) l es ella es usted es nosotros somos vosotros sois(Spain) ellos son ellas son ustedes son While you might introduce the ser conjugation forms all at once in a conjugation table, you might also choose to just introduce a few at a time when they come up in your stories depending on your preferred teaching method. Either way, when learning Spanish verbs ser is one of the foundational verbs for students to learn! Identifying people or objects time and date location of events descriptions origin profession relationships and possessions Ser means to be, but its a bit more nuanced than that with some subtle differences between using ser and estar. Use of the verb ser takes plenty of time and repetition for students to master. If youre looking for traditional worksheets to practice the different conjugations in your lesson plans, here are some options for you! Help your students practice present tense ser & adjectives vocabulary with these print & go practices! These are great review worksheets for Spanish physical descriptions vocabulary. The first two pages are fun and silly, having students work on using the form of the verb ser and describing animals in Spanish. Click here to download! Then, students can work on the Yo Tmbin writing sheet. Your Spanish students read & mark Yo tmbin or Yo no for each sentence describing the person. Afterwards, they will re-write the sentence on the line, changing it to describe themselves. Next, theyll play a roll and write game! Roll the dice 2 times to identify the subject and the adjective. They will record their rolls, then write a sentence in Spanish based on what they rolled. There are different versions of the worksheet to include different adjective options! This is one of my all time favorite review games. It is so easy and is always super fun! Students just need a worksheet each, one pencil per group, and one die. Theyll roll the die to attempt to steal the pencil from each other, and race to finish the worksheet first.Learn more about how to play here! Learn how to play here! Bump! is a fun, low prep review game that gets students speaking in a low-stress way. The materials needed are probably already in your classroom! Download the game board here! Materials Needed: Game board make enough copies for pairs of students 1 die* per pair A set of markers per player. These should be different colors.Mini erasers,manipulatives like these, or even just squares of construction paper in different colors work great! Note: If you dont have dice, there are free roll a dice pages online, or even printable dice you could use instead!Heres a website that popped up when I googled it, but there are many out there to choose from. I love using dice so I have a bunch I keep handy. Heres my favorite way to store and use them with students: My set is very similar to this one! Now that you have gathered the materials, heres how to play Bump! Instructions: Players take turns to roll the die. They say the correct subject pronoun either out loud, or written on a mini whiteboard according to the number rolled. Then, they cover the correct word with one of their markers, covering the larger text. If another player has covered that form, they can bump that marker off, and put their own in its place. If the word is covered by one of the players own markers, they can put another marker on top and they have won that space. You can only bump if there is only one marker on the space. The game ends when all of the spaces have 2 markers on them. The winner has the most markers on the board. Are you familiar with sudoku? In this Spanish puzzle version, students fill in each row, column, and box with the different forms of the verb ser in the present tense. Its a great way to reinforce conjugation of the verb ser as students wind up repeating the forms in their head as they work on the Spanish puzzle. This set of Spanish worksheets includes a puzzle for ser and a puzzle for tener! Click here to download! Corre en Crculos is a great way to get students working with vocabulary and grammar while you get them up and moving! In this scavenger hunt style review game, students look at a small prompt on the bottom half of the page, record their answer on their answer sheet, then find the answer on a different clue card hung around the room. Learn more about how to introduce this to your students in my video: Students can do the scavenger hunt solo, in pairs, or in small groups! I let them choose and students always sort themselves as they work through the game.Visit the blog post here to learn more about this review game and grab a printable freebie to try out with your novices! This scavenger hunt set reinforces the verb ser and profession vocabulary. Students see a prompt such as, Yo (clip art of doctor). Students respond with the form of ser and the occupation in Spanish! Occupations Include: chef/doctor(a) granjero bombero/a cartero/a pintor/a polica profesor(a) veterinaria camarero/a Download the printable and digital game here! There is an additional version of the answer sheet that includes the occupations in Spanish for you to review vocabulary with your students prior to beginning the activity. The occupations are also provided in the form of printable cards in case you just wanted to hang them as a visual reference for your Spanish students. An answer key is included with example sentences for you to check student work, as well as a digital version! In this scavenger hunt game, students practice using ser to describe people. Students see a prompt such as, Yo _____ (intelligent). Students respond with the form of ser and the adjective in Spanish! Click here to download the game and handouts! Adjectives Include: aburrido/aburrda alto/alta bajo/baja cmico/cmica divertido/divertida fuerte grande guapo/guapa inteligente interesante paciente pelirrojo/pelirroja pequeo/pequea perezoso/perezosa rubio/rubia serio/seria simpico/simpitca trabajador/trabajadora This is the perfect way to review description and adjective vocabulary while practicing the verb ser! An answer key is included, as well as a digital activity on Google Slides for absent students or another option for you! I love maze games for practicing Spanish vocabulary and grammar! In this lesson idea, students find their way through the maze by choosing the right answer on the path. They repeat those stepsfo find their way through the maze. Click here to download! For example, if a box reads, Ashley _____ de los Estados Unidos., theyll follow the path that says es because the subject of that sentence is the third person. Theyll repeat that, step by step, until they escape and get to the end of the maze! This is such a fun way to gamify Spanish grammar as students work to pick the right choice and follow each correct answer out of the labyrinth. How it Works: Print & make copies, or assign the digital activity on Google Slides Students read the question in the first box They choose the correct answer and follow that path through the maze Repeat until they get to the end Along the way there are purposeful dead-ends in the maze. This is a great way to encourage critical thinking and makes these sheets self correcting as students have to retrace their steps until they find the correct answer.Click here to read the blog post on maze games for Spanish class and grab a free download for la ciudad vocabulary. Click here to grab a free maze in the blog post! This worksheet is a great option for independent work, or even an interactive quiz. An answer key is included, too! Click here to see 10 ways to play maze games in your World Languages classes! This is probably the lowest prep option of the Spanish conjugation games in this list! Print off the board game, then just make copies. Students roll a die to move their game piece, then roll for which subject pronoun theyll conjugate for. Boom! Click here to download 2 versions of this review game! This is one of my favorite print and go activities. Its also great to have on hand forfast finishers. There aretwoversions of the game! One with ser and adjectives and one with ser de and Spanish-speaking countries. Scrambled sentences are a great way to get your students thinking and talking about the language collaboratively! Groups or partners work together to reassembled the scrambled sentence while working on the verb forms and emphasizing adjective agreement. Click here to download the worksheets! This set of activities includes instructions on how to use this game, and a few variations for you as well. One variation is a quick review that will take about 15 minutes, the other version can take up to 40 minutes with in-depth critical thinking about syntax and word order! On the worksheet, students write the Spanish sentences on each line, and in the subsequent blank sentences are translated to English to check for understanding. Spanish language learners need opportunities to speak with each other in low stress ways. Find someone who activities are one of my favorite options for speaking with novice and intermediate students! In this human bingo game, students get up and using their Spanish. Download the speaking handouts here! They try and find others to fill out their sheet asking each other questions, but each student can only sign anothers paper one time! There is also a follow up written activity for students to write sentences using the information from their classmates in the third person. Vocabulary Includes: alto atlrico artstico bajo bonito castao cmico creativo delgado estudioso fuerte guapo inteligente interesante paciente pelirrojo rubia serio simpitico trabajador When students complete their sheet, you can go through them together as a class and check who they got in each box with a quick show of hands! Dictation in Spanish class is a great way to practice listening comprehension and writing skills. You can choose to place an emphasis on spelling if you would like and encourage students to spel as accurately as possible to help them pay close attention to pronunciation. Download the set of worksheets and audio files here! This set of listening activities includes: Teachers Guide & Notes 12 Running Dictation Slips print & hang Running Dictation Sheets with or without accuracy check Classic Dictation record and translate Illustration Sheet Read and Draw page Listen, Write, and Draw Extension Activity students write their own and trade with a partner Audio file (12 sentences, each repeated 2x) Script If youre looking for a great resource for your sub plans, color by conjugation worksheets are a great fit! These printable one-page worksheet reviews verbs by having students color the different verb forms according to the key. Its very similar to color by number, but they see the verb forms written out instead of numerals! In this set, there are three different color by conjugation sheets included to practice the forms of the verb ser. This is a great option for after a quiz, a calm review day, or with a sub! The vosotros form is included on all three sheets. Theyre a great general practice to keep on hand! Click here to download the worksheets! If youre looking for a little seasonal fun, you might likethese Day of the Dead worksheets to practice the Spanish verb ser! This includes 6 different pages with the verb forms on fun calavera coloring sheets. Grab a set of ser practice activities and save on the discounted bundle pack here! Save this post for later on Pinterest! Enhance your students' Spanish skills with these detailed worksheets and activities! This bundle covers a wide variety of grammar topics, including present tense regular AR, ER, IR verbs, irregular verbs (ser, estar, tener, ir, saber, hay and conocer), subject pronouns and much more. You will be amazed at how fun and engaging grammar becomes when you use these Spanish Grammar Doodle Notes. This bundle can be used throughout the entire school year. BUNDLE INCLUDES* vs. UstedSpanish Present To Hola! In the previous worksheet, we introduced a list of common irregular verbs in Spanish and asked you to conjugate them. This time, we will focus on the verb SER in Spanish with two specific exercises related to this topic in this nice worksheet. We hope you find it very useful. Lets start Students could work individually or in pairs to solve the exercises on this worksheet. Give students a copy of the worksheet. This worksheet includes three exercises. For the first exercise, students must complete the chart with the proper conjugations of the verb SER in Spanish for each subject pronoun. In the second one, they should take a look at the images above each sentence and simply complete the sentences about those pictures with the forms of the verb. Finally, students should analyze and complete the paragraph about a group of friends using the right forms of SER in the present tense, too. Level: BeginnersSkill: GrammarRelated lessons: The verb SER in Spanish PDF Worksheet (with answers)Download PDF Fill in the blanks with the conjugations of the verb SER in the present indicative. Drag and drop the conjugations of the verb SER to the correct boxes to complete the sentences in the interactive quiz. Students read the sentences in exercise No. 2 again and make new sentences about their friends and classmates following a similar pattern. They should write at least 5 sentences and present them to the rest of the class so that the teacher helps them with pronunciation or any grammar mistake on the use of the verb SER in Spanish.

Subject pronouns and the verb ser worksheet answers. Use of subject pronouns. Subject pronouns and the verb ser worksheet answer key. Subject pronouns worksheet. Subject pronouns and verb to be worksheet.