Precious Moments are highly sought-after collectibles that originated from Samuel's illustrations of children with teardrop-shaped eyes on cards. Over time, they evolved into sculptures, and today there are over 2,000 Precious Moments figures available for collectors. One rare and valuable piece is the Cinderella-themed figurine, "A Wonderful Dream Come True." Limited to just 1500 pieces worldwide, this stunning creation stands at 10"H x 20 1/2" L on a wooden base and features Cinderella in a baby blue gown standing beside her pumpkin carriage. The figurine also serves as a music box that plays the enchanting tune "A Dream Is a Wish Your Heart Makes." Precious Moments is a beloved brand of collectible figurines, founded by Samuel J. Butcher and Bill Biel in 1975. The first figurine, "Love One Another," was released in 1978 and has since become one of the most popular among collectors. Over the years, the company has introduced various limited-edition collections, special editions, and annual membership clubs, which have greatly contributed to their popularity. A highly sought-after "We Would See Jesus" Chapel Exclusive figurine has sold for $1,600 on eBay. The condition of the figurine plays a crucial role in determining its value. Generally, rare and well-preserved pieces with original packaging increase in worth. Certain characters from special series or memorable events, like birthdays and anniversaries, are highly prized among collectors. Older Precious Moments figurines produced between 1978 and early years have become extremely valuable due to their rarity. Some unique features, such as creator Sam Butcher's signature or artist's autographs, can significantly boost a figurine's value. The first 21 models of the Original 21 collection are highly sought after by collectors. A rare 9-inch "Disney Showcase Collection" music box featuring Princess Cinderella sold for $1,600 on eBay. The original packaging and label added to its value. Exclusive figurines from specific events or clubs often hold more worth. A signed "Love One Another" figurine was sold for $645, showcasing the impact of rare production marks and artist's autographs. Precious Moments figurines have gained significant value over time. One notable edition is the 114th exclusive figurine from a series of 1000, featuring a little boy and girl lying in front of a pink-flowered Bonsai tree. This specific figurine sold for $1,000 on eBay, making it one of the most expensive in its class. In another instance, a collection of 75 Precious Moments figurines, along with a glass doll house, was also sold for $1,000 on the same platform. Genuine Precious Moments figurines can be identified by specific markings at their base. These include the "Precious Moments" logo, the figurine's name, and an "Exclusive Series" mark or series name. The Disney Precious Moments collection requires a unique marking called the "Disney Showcase Collection." Additionally, look for the edition number and date of production. For those interested in buying or selling Precious Moments figurines, it's essential to know their worth beforehand. The value can be determined by identifying the specific markings on the figurine. If you have vintage figurines like Hummel, Goebel, or Lladro, there are detailed guides available for identification and valuation. A notable example of a Disney Precious Moments figurine is Cinderella's Limited Edition princess. This stunning figurine celebrates the 100th Anniversary of Disney and features intricately placed Preciosa crystals throughout its design. The coach and cobblestones are finely detailed, making it a breathtaking addition to any collection. Fans of Cinderella, Disney collectibles, and Disney Princesses will appreciate this exquisite figurine as a thoughtful gift or simply for display purposes.
